

Please do NOT allow the use of cell phones onboard commercial flights. The foreseeable problems that this could cause are countless. Passengers want to have peace and quiet when they travel. Having to listen to the yammering of people on their cell phones would most definitely put passengers over the edge...Can you hear me now???